

The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 9. 1717.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 30.

Dantzick, November 17.

M. Weber departed from hence this Day to go to the Czar's Court, in Quality of Minister of the King of Great Britain. The South-West Winds which have reigned here for some time, have hinder'd any Ships coming into this Road; so that the Trade for Corn remains very much interrupted. The English Ships remaining here, are preparing to sail home the 20th Instant, under the Convoy of a Man of War of that Nation.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 7.

Hamburg, Dec. 3. We are daily assur'd that the King of Prussia will send a good Body of Troops to the Service of the Emperour in Italy: And that his said Majesty will considerably reinforce his Garrisons in all the Towns of the Upper and Lower Pomerania, in order to stop the Swedes in case they shall make any Enterprize there.

Cologn, Dec. 3. Our Elector remains still at Bonn, and does not seem to intend to go to Liege this Winter. The Armament the French are making in Alsace gives Occasion for much Discourse.

From the Hague Courant, dated Nov. 29.

Brussels, Nov. 25. The Packet with the German Letters, wherein were Dispatches for the Marquis de Prié, and the Field Marshal Count Vehlen, which was by Mistake left at Tongeren, is now come to hand; and according to the Letters it brings, there is now Reason to doubt of Prince Engene's coming this Winter into these Countries. Count Hompesch having dispatch'd his Affairs here, is return'd to his Government of Namur. The Difference between the Government of Liege, and that of this Province, concerning some Duties claim'd by them, upon some Countries shut in by their Dominions, are now laid aside, and the working upon the new Road that was making from this City to that of Liege which will be extremely convenient for Passengers and Goods, is now resum'd, and carried on with Diligence.

Paris, Dec. 11. An Arret of the King's Council of State, dated Nov. 27, is publish'd, whereby the Diminution appointed for the 1st Day of December, upon the ancient Species, and Materials of Gold and Silver, is further prorogued to the first Day of February next.

There is also publish'd an Arret of the Court of Parliament, dated Dec. 1, importing, That the Gens du Roy being enter'd the Court, the King's Advocate said, That they saw with Grief, that in Contempt of the Declaration of the 7th of October last, which suspends all the Disputes and Contests form'd in the Kingdom, on Occasion of the late Constitution of our most Holy Father the Pope, there are lately spread in this City, many Copies of a Writing, Entitl'd, The Act of Appeal of his Eminence Monseigneur the Cardinal de Noailles, Archbishop of Paris, &c. Printed without the Allowance or Participation of that Prelate.

That an Impression made in such Circumstances, could not be other than the Work of seditious Spirits, who employ themselves only in sowing Trouble and Division in the Church, whilst a Prince, more to be respected for his Virtues, and for his Zeal for the Interests of Religion, than for his high Station and high Birth, employs incessantly all his Cares for establishing a Calm. They cannot therefore forbear claiming the Authority of the Court, against a Publication so contrary to the late Declaration of the King; and that in Order to maintain so wise a Law, they believ'd themselves oblig'd to draw up the Conclusions in writing which they have lodg'd in the proper Office, with a Printed Copy of the Appeal. The Gens du Roy being retir'd, the Court examin'd the said Writing, Entitl'd, An Act of Appeal of his Eminence Monseigneur the Cardinal de Noailles, Archbishop of Paris, of the 3d of April 1717, to the Pope, better inform'd, and to a future General Council, from the Constitution of our Holy Father the Pope Clement XI, of the 8th of September 1713, and the King's Declaration of the 7th of October, Register'd in Parliament. And the Matter being put into Deliberation, the Court ordains, that the Copies of the said Print shall be suppress'd, &c. All Persons are forbid selling, uttering, or distributing the same, upon the Penalties express'd in the said Declaration of October 7. And it is order'd that the said Declaration shall be observ'd and executed in its full Form and Tenor, &c.

London, December 9.

These are to give Notice, that there will be a General Meeting of the Traitors, appointed by the Act of Parliament for Repairing the Brentford Road, on Saturday the 14th of this Instant December, by Ten in the Morning, at the Pack-horse on Turnham Green, in Order to receive Proposals from Persons who are willing to lend Money on the Security of the said Act of Parliament.

The Merchant Taylors Company give Notice they intend to Lett by Lease, a Slaughter-House in the Tenure of Mr. Markham, and severer Tenements thereto adjoining, in Moor-Lane; and severer Tenements and Gardens, late in the Tenure of Mr. Locke, in Tenter-Alley in Little-Mos-fields; and also severer front Tenements in Little-Mos-fields, in the Tenure of Deputy Blewring, Mr. Ward, Mr. Holford and Mr. Davy; for which Purpose a Committee will sit at Merchant Taylors Hall on Wednesday the 11th Instant, at Nine in the forenoon; the further Particulars may be had of Mr. George North, Clerk to the said Company, at the said Hall.

Whereas on Saturday Night last, a Stable was broke open at Croydon, in the Parish of Hornsey, and a light grey Gelding, about 15 Hands high, about 9 Years old, with a good Fore and, his Body very lean, a very thin Mane, a thin whisk Tail, was stolen, and with him two Saddles and two Bridles, one of the Saddles being of red Leather, the other black, and one of the Bridles a Snaffle, and the other a new half bit. Whoever shall discover the Person who stole the said Horse, and cause him to be apprehended, so as he be brought to Justice, shall upon his Conviction be paid Five Pounds by the Publisher of this Paper, besides the Reward given by Law. N. B. The Person who stole the said Horse, is supposed to be under 30 Years of Age, is of middle Stature, lean, pale fac'd, large dark Eye-brows, wore a light Wig, a light blue Livercy, trimmed all down the Seams and round the Skirts with pretty broad worl'd Galloon of mixed Colours, black Water-coat, Breeches and Stockings. He was lately a Hackney Coachman, and, as he says, drove for Mr. Blunt; he sometimes calls himself John Blunt; sometimes pretends to have been Servant to a Lady Howard, sometimes that he served the late Lord De-wentwater; and where-ever he comes, is full of Talk, and of different stories of himself.
